

IRELAND IS CALLED TO ARMS BY GOVERNMENT

Need of Stronger Army to Meet Rebels Seen

CITY OF DUBLIN WRECKED

Buildings Are in Ruins—De Valera Missing

DUBLIN—(Associated Press.)—A call to arms was issued today by the provisional free state government in the form of a proclamation paving the way for the enlistment of those citizens who last week were declined by the government because it was confident of the ability of the army single handed to meet and defeat an attack made upon it. The proclamation follows:

"I have shown, that while the present active strength of the army has been sufficient to deal adequately with the recent situation there is a possibility of continued sporadic action which makes an increase in the army establishment actually necessary."

The provisional free state government has instructed the general headquarters staff of the volunteer organization to place its entire establishment on an active service basis.

The headquarters staff is directing officers commanding local units to appeal to all members to accept arms for three months. All other citizens who desire to join the national ranks will also be recruited or the volunteer organization.

RUNS IN WAR'S WAKE

Twenty buildings in O'Connell-st., Dublin's main thoroughfare, were destroyed by fire which raged through the night, were not completely under control today, but only smoldering ruins remained where the insurgents made their last stand. It is believed the damage will reach several hundred thousand pounds. Four persons were shot dead during the night.

Robert C. Barton, former minister of economics in the Daily Eireann cabinet, was arrested at the home of Erskine Childers.

The Irish Independent today says it is informed on good authority that Eamon De Valera, the Republican leader, left the Sackville-st. stronghold Tuesday night. It is understood that papers of a military nature were found in the possession of Barton when he was arrested at the Childers' residence in Sackville Park-rd.

At 8 o'clock this morning the fire on the Sackville-st. area still was raging outside the area which the Republicans had held under their best control, where the flames raged. The whole line of buildings from the offices of the Dublin Tramway Company to Findlater's, which formed the 200 yard frontage of the Republicans' last stronghold, including the buildings, Gresham, Granville and Brown hotels and the general post office. Six buildings on the opposite side of the street also were destroyed by the fire which threatened this afternoon to spread to Henry-st.

DE VALERA MISSING

LONDON—(Associated Press.)—Complete mystery surrounds the whereabouts of Eamon De Valera, the Irish Republican leader. The rumors reaching here from Dublin are that he has been wounded and captured and a third that he escaped on Monday, having delivered as his fare farewell to the British "never surrender, but escape if you can."

Still another speculation is that he has joined Erskine Childers, who is reported to be at the head of a band of fighters in the hills around Dublin, while elsewhere it is suggested that he had gone to the benefit of his counsel to the southern Republicans centered in Mullagh.

WARD NOT NORMAL

Ward Testifies—Wife Tells of Vanderbilt Story

NEW YORK—Walter S. Ward, wealthy baker's son, charged with the murder of Clarence Peters, was found normal before the killing, according to the testimony of his mother, Mrs. Ward, before the grand jury made public today.

Mrs. Ward, wife of the accused, whose testimony also was made public today, told the grand jury that she had seen her son in a newspaper story to the effect that Ward, after being lodged in jail, had visited his mother one night before being released. In denying the story she said the young man had tried to interview her on a sympathy plea.

She said in great sympathy as very insistent upon seeing her son, she had positively declined to see him.

Before the grand jury was discharged, a hand-up was presented by the prosecution.

MILLION PERSONS OUT ON STRIKE

(BY PAUL R. MALLON.)

WASHINGTON—(United Press.)—More than a million men and women in the United States are out on strikes, protesting against wage reductions. Figures made public today by government agencies revealed that approximately 9,000,000 hours of work a day are being lost by industries because of walkouts.

Labor department figures show a total of 1,150,000 men are on strike including 400,000 railway men.

The strikes—ranging from the major coal and rail industries down to the smallest congregation of workers—affect nearly every industry in the United States directly or indirectly.

Officials of the labor department express the opinion that the full force of the major walkouts is yet to be experienced.

Division of the walkout as follows: Bituminous miners 573,000 (out since April 1.)

Anthracite miners 155,000 (out since April 1.)

Textile workers 80,000 (out since January 1.)

Railroad shop men 400,000 (struck July 1.)

Minor strikes 20,000.

If these strikes continue for any length of time the "secondary workers" in the industries, dependent on the major industries, will be thrown out of work, the labor department believes.

150 OVERCOME BY SMOKE

TRAIN IN SUBWAY TAKES FIRE

Mayor Directs Rescue in New York Accident

FIREMEN AMONG STRICKEN

Injured Stretched Out on Sidewalks for Many Blocks

NEW YORK—(Associated Press.)—About 150 persons were overcome by smoke today when a northbound Jerome-av express on the east side subway caught fire near Lexington-av and Sixty-first-st. Dozens of ambulances were summoned from nearly every hospital in the city and Mayor Hylan arrived to direct the rescue work.

The accident occurred about 75 feet underground.

The fire started in the motor-man's box after a fuse had blown out. There was a flash of flame and the smoke swept thru the crowded train.

MAD SCRAMBLE

When the emergency brakes were applied and the train came to a grinding halt, guards threw open the doors and passengers made a mad scramble to escape. Those unable to walk were carried from the cars to the Fifty-ninth-st station. Fire ladders also were dropped thru iron gratings at Sixty-first-st and conscious women lifted to the surface.

The injured were stretched out on the sidewalks for several blocks. A temporary hospital was organized and 14 pulmonologists put in operation. The crowd of spectators soon became so dense that police reserves had to be rushed to the scene.

FIREMEN OVERCOME

Men, women and children filled the tea car train. Guards attempted to fight the flames with hand extinguishers but failed. When the firemen arrived, however, they soon succeeded in quelling the blaze, which in itself was small. Many of the fire fighters were overcome.

Relief work soon got under way. Besides the doctors who hastened to the scene in ambulances, many other physicians jumped into taxicabs, in many cases bringing their office nurses with them.

Bloomingdale's department store at 59th-st and Lexington-av promptly organized a fire brigade of 75 employees who rushed into the subway to aid in the rescue work.

The store's drug department was raided for supplies and pulmotors.

Many firemen were overcome as they tried to descend the subway steps. Members of the rescue squad donned their gas masks to attack the flames.

Mayor Hylan, one of the first city officials to arrive, was driven back by fumes when he attempted to enter the subway. He directed that experts be summoned from the fire department and the department of water supply, gas and electricity to make a thorough investigation of the blaze.

SANDLES TO FIGHT FOR PLACE

Ottawa Man is Determined to Run For Governor

WILL ATTACK SMITH RULING

Sees Victory for Democrats in Fall Election

OTTAWA — (Special) — A P Sandles of this city, will make a fight to have his name placed on the Democratic primary ballot in the August 8 election, as a candidate for Governor.

The Ottawa man announced his decision Wednesday night, after his return home for his month's trip on a speaking tour thru Canada and western United States.

He will leave for Columbia Thursday night, he said, where he will open a fight against the ruling of Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith that his name was not properly certified.

Smith asserted that Sandles' name was signed on his petition by his secretary, Claude L. Clark, and that the form of oath was also acknowledged by Clark. Smith's decision was promulgated after a protest was filed by Edward J. Groely of Columbus.

Sandles refused to comment concerning the line of attack he expects to make, but remarked pointedly that he "has something up his sleeve." He said he did not intend to talk until he returned to Columbus and got in touch with the situation there, but admitted that he does not intend to submit lamely to the decision of the Secretary of State. He expressed confidence that his name will go before the voters as a gubernatorial candidate, along with those of A. V. Donahy, Judge James Johnson and T. J. Duffy.

Sandles refused to comment when he was asked if the statement was true that Clark had signed his petition for him. "I'm not talking now," he said.

SEES VICTORY AHEAD

The Ottawa man covered 8,000 miles of territory in his northern tour, he said. He has seen that everywhere in the United States and the territory he covered he found a disposition on the part of the voters for a return of Democratic rule and a desire to "rid both the old parties of money grabbers."

Sandles addressed a crowd of 10,000 in Omaha, in which he asserted that conditions so much desired can be had only by a return to the principles laid down by Thomas Jefferson.

He is making a determined stand for uniform tax laws.

RUM FLEET BACK ON U. S. COAST

15 Ships, Carrying Booze, Anchored off New York

NEW YORK.—(United Press.)—An international rum smuggling fleet, several hundred men and 15 or more ships strong, which was repulsed July 2, in a sea engagement with the federal "dry navy" and driven 15 miles to sea, returned today and is planning another dash to the New York-New Jersey coast according to information received by Ralph A. Day, prohibition director.

The fleet carries a cargo of booze said to be worth nearly $6,000,000 at bootleggers' prices, according to dry agents.

In the belief that most of the ships in the fleet now riding at anchor a few miles off the New York harbor are sailing under the British flag when they display a flag at all.

Day declared he planned to make representations to the British government for cooperation to stop smuggling.

"We will begin conferences with the British government representatives. The British government is by treaty pledged to keep her subjects from breaking our laws," Day declared.

"I am going to break those smugglers or break my neck trying," he said.

All dry forces in the New York district are to be concentrated in a new effort to repulse the smuggling fleet, according to Day.

PRESENT FOR HARDING

CINCINNATI.—A party of Cincinnati Elks, who will leave on a special train Friday for the annual reunion of Elks at Atlantic City, will stop on the way at Mount Vernon, Va., Saturday to present a lamp case to President Harding.

Arrangements have been made to meet the president at Mount Vernon on his return trip to Washington August 11th.

SHE'S BANK CHIEF

MYRTLE COOPER

The first woman to receive the post of bank manager is Myrtle Cooper of Los Angeles.

She has formally assumed the management of the Vermont avenue branch of the Citizens Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles.

Telegrams congratulating her upon the appointment were immediately wired by W. J. Fitzwillson, secretary of the American Bankers' Association; the National League of Women Voters, the Woman's Suffrage Association and many other national organizations.

HARDING'S VISIT HOME ENDS

President Reluctantly Bids Marion Friends Good-bye

MARION — (Associated Press.)—President and Mrs. Harding reluctantly said good-bye to their friends here today as they left on their automobile trip back to the White House. The president and his companions departed from Marion for Columbus, fifty miles away, as their destination for the night.

Tomorrow morning the presidential party will leave the Ohio capital with the expectation of arriving in Washington either late Saturday or Sunday. The National road route, which was traversed most of the way on the trip to Marion, will be followed on the return journey.

His two day visit among relatives and former neighbors, away from the cares of office has proved invigorating to the president. He made no effort as he bade friends good-bye, to conceal his regret that he could not tarry longer among them.

MOSTLY IN SECLUSION

Aside from four appearances in public, Mr. Harding kept himself pretty much in seclusion. On arriving Monday night he went to his father's home and there, with members of his family and close friends who dropped in for a word of greeting, he remained much of the time.

Marion residents who had expected him, as in the old days when he was editor of the Star, to stroll down town, dropping into old haunts for a chat, were disappointed.

On one occasion he walked to the Star office but did not again go down to the business section except to review yesterday's parade. Three trips were made to the fair grounds to participate in celebrations there.

Attorney General Daugherty came to Marion late yesterday from Washington Courthouse, Ohio, where he had been visiting his mother who is ill. The presence of the attorney general here, it was said, was without significance. Mr. Daugherty left today with the presidential party.

ADDRESSES VETERANS

So long as the American Legion is consecrated to the preservation of the constitution and of law and order, the American republic is everlastingly secure, the president asserted in a brief address yesterday to several thousand World War veterans who held a reunion here.

Reminding them that they were now charged with a greater responsibility than they were on the battlefields of France, Mr. Harding declared the destiny of the United States was in the hands of former service men.

"I have no hesitancy in saying," he added, "that it is in good hands."

ALLEGED ROBBER CAPTURED

FACE'S FRYED CHARGE

TOLEDO.—H. Hoffer, released after serving a two-year sentence in Atlanta penitentiary for violating postal laws, was brought here to face charge of using the mails to defraud.

REPAIR MEN TO BE WITHDRAWN

Men and Locomotives Will be Sent to Ft. Wayne

STRIKERS' ISSUE STATEMENT

Scout Report of Moving of L. E. & W. Shops

The Pennsylvania roundhouses at Cole-st and the Pennsylvania tracks will be closed Thursday and the seven engines maintained there will be moved to Ft. Wayne.

Nine men employed in the roundhouse will also be sent to the Ft. Wayne shops, while seven switching crews made up of 35 men, may follow shortly thereafter.

Such was the gist of an order received Wednesday night by W. W. Crooks, general agent of the Pennsylvania lines in this city, when it was learned that neither additional city protection or county protection could be assured the shops during the strike of railway trainmen now on, he announced.

PROTECTION SOUGHT

Appeals for protection made to Chief of Police Lanker, Crooks said, were met with refusal when the chief declared that the shops were out of his jurisdiction and it would not be possible for him to furnish protection.

Similar appeals made to Sheriff Charles Baxter also met with discouraging answers, Crooks said, when Baxter declared that he did not have enough deputies to assign additional men to the Pennsylvania roundhouse. Request that more deputies be sworn in could not be met because of lack of men, Sheriff Baxter is reported to have said.

A conference with high officials of the Pennsylvania Lines, Crooks declared, resulted in the order that removes the work from this city.

It has not as yet been determined, Crooks said, whether the entire switching staff at the yards will be moved. Thirty-five men are employed there on three trips.

The engine repair work and housing will go, however, he stated. This will make it necessary for switch engines to be sent to this city from Ft. Wayne, every morning for switching purposes here.

Crooks points to the fact that this will cause considerable trouble and delay in switching in the Lima yards. He declares that the re-establishment of the roundhouse here after the strike is settled, is problematical.

MOVE ENGINES TONIGHT

Until Thursday, four guards were stationed at the Pennsylvania shops since the strike began. The relocation of the work, however, it is reported, led officials to fear a continuance of operations there without additional protection. Their request was for six additional guards.

When Thursday's work is over, Crooks said, the roundhouse at the Pennsylvania yards will be closed and all of the seven engines maintained there will have been moved away.

No service of any kind will be had there, he said.

STATEMENT ISSUED

First official statement concerning the strike of railway shopmen in Lima, to come directly from strike headquarters here, was issued Thursday by the general chairman of the allied crafts, to The Lima News.

The statement contains a summary of the situation as it exists at the present time and explains the stand of the striking men, relative to points that have arisen since the walkout last Saturday.

In addition to the statement, the general chairman took issue with news dispatches declaring that 50 percent of the men over the country were returning to work. He denied the validity of the report and cited communications to the Lima organized crafts claiming 100 per cent walkouts on all divisions of the Baltimore & Ohio road. All other places mentioned in the news dispatches, the general chairman declared, are experiencing no marked return of men. The shops mentioned he said, have been organized for many years, and are in position to maintain their walkouts for an indefinite period.

Strikers seemed little concerned when apprised of the announcement that the Pennsylvania roundhouse had been ordered away from Lima. They seemed more interested to hear that the removal would take from this city some seven strikebreakers who were brought here to fill positions at the Pennsylvania shops, made vacant by men who left when the strike call took effect.

STRIKEBREAKERS GO

They also seemed elated over the fact that with the removal of the strikebreakers would go the removal of men at the Pennsylvania shops who they assert have been carrying firearms with out proper authority. The strikers are anxious to avert trouble of any kind, the general chairman declared.

In an effort to eliminate the possibility of trouble with the men who were alleged to be carrying guns, strikers Thursday appealed to authorities, rather than take the matter in their own hands as rumors had it they would.

Shortly thereafter, the strikers

COMMUNITY SINGING IS PLANNED

Will be Made Feature of Chautauqua, July 13-20

FINE PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

E. H. Kettler Superintendent of Junior Work

Community singing is to be one of the principal features of the Col. Albert Chautauqua program to be presented in Lima this year.

This attraction has been announced as perhaps the principal activity in which local people will participate during the eight days that the educational attraction will be given in this city.

Chautauqua promoters are already laying plans for this part of the program. J. R. Longworth, president of the Lima Chautauqua association, is personally supervising the organization of the plan that will enable the execution of a community sing program.

LEADER NOT CHOSEN
A leader has not yet been chosen for the musical program, it has been announced. As soon as plans are completed, however, the songmaster will be named.

He will probably be a local man. The chautauqua is scheduled to open in Lima Thursday afternoon. With the exception of the community sing arrangements, the entire program stands complete.

The chautauqua will remain here for eight days, July 13 to 20.

Lima Chautauqua association officials have been working steadily on the arrangements for the big educational festival. They have arranged for a presentation of practically every kind of attraction recognized as legitimate by the educational world. Musical programs, geographical discussions, dramas and comedies have been scheduled.

Meetings of the association in which the distribution of tickets has been arranged have been held. Indications are that the chautauqua for 1922 will experience one of the best years it has ever had in this city.

Ticket sales are reported good. Practically all members of the Lima association are selling them. Both single admissions and course tickets may be had.

OFFICERS IN CHARGE

J. R. Longworth is president of the Lima organization. Mrs. S. M. Williams is vice president. L. E. Ludwig is secretary and H. A. Slocum is treasurer.

E. H. Kettler has been placed in charge of the junior chautauqua as superintendent.

The chautauqua will be presented this year, as in the past, at the Baxter school grounds at Elm-st. and Elmwood-av.

The big tent that houses the attraction will be ready for the crowd at the time the first of the first afternoon of the eight day program.

One of the foremost attractions this year is the scheduled appearance of Wilhelmur Stenstrom, arctic explorer who will deliver a lecture on the subject "The North That Never Was."

LIMA MAN SAVES DROWNING PAIR

Frank Pringle Rescues Man and Girl at Russell Point

Frank Pringle, No. 4 Francis-apt., played a prominent part in the rescue and resuscitation of Josephine Dillcock of Tiqua and "Shep" Stepleton of Cridersville, who were saved from drowning at Russell Point, as they were sinking for the last time Wednesday.

Pringle reached the drowning pair in a boat, and seized Stepleton by his arm. He then got hold of the girl and lifted her into his boat. By that time another boat reached the spot and he assisted Stepleton to climb into it. They were taken to shore and given first aid.

Stepleton Miss Dillcock and a second girl were boat riding. The two girls were attired in bathing suits. Miss Dillcock jumped out of the boat for a swim. The depth of the spot is more than 2 feet, it is said.

She soon became tired and frightened. Stepleton dived in, clothes and all, to aid her. Before he could get hold of the girl she threw her arms around him, hampering his movements and choking him.

Stepleton had given up, when he saw Pringle's boat coming. "When I saw it," Stepleton said, "I decided to fight a little longer."

Pringle was about 100 feet off shore. "Anyone could have done it," he said modestly. "I just helped out."

More than 300 persons congregated on the bank witnessed the rescue. Pringle was the only man close at hand when the plight of the couple was discovered. The companion of Miss Dillcock was too naive to enter into the situation to assist the drowning pair.

WAPAKONETA—When their auto struck a chuck hole in the road south of here, Wednesday afternoon, Sam Tapp, building contractor, Jake Metzels and their wives and one child escaped death in an overturn of the touring car Tapp was driving. Three of the members of the party were injured.

AVIATOR "DARES" LIMA COPS TO RIDE WITH HIM ON TRIP TO CLOUDLAND

Lima policemen are to have their bravery tested.

Any one of them who are game can get a free ride in an aeroplane at least 1,500 feet over the territory they guard.

D. G. Cline, aviator, who has a standard ship at West and O'Connor-sts., issued the "dare" to members of the force, Thursday.

Cline offers to take all members of the force for a ride over the city. There are 32 men employed by the department.

The invitation was issued for Saturday.

He is awaiting their acceptance of his dare.

PRIMARY BLAMED FOR CORRUPTION

Newberry Case Result of System, Senator New Says

CALLED COMPLETE FAILURE

Predicts Nation-Wide Campaign to Repeal Plan

(BY LAWRENCE MARTIN)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Predicting a nation-wide onslaught on the primary system of nominating candidates and a return to the old convention plan, Senator Newberry, Indiana, today declared that the Newberry case was a direct result of the primary system.

He asserted the plan is a "conscious failure" and the "breeder of political corruption and inefficiency in public service."

Secretary Weeks' recent attack on the direct primary is regarded as an opening of the campaign.

ELABORATE PLANS

New said the fight on the primary will not be nationally directed by any central organization. But, it was feared, elaborate plans have been made for an "educational" campaign designed to prove to the public that the primary is a failure and that it lets into public life "Bolshevism" and radicals and the apostles of many strange "isms" following this, the anti-primary forces in each state will attack that state's law.

In some, efforts will be made to amend the law. In others, outright repeal will be sought.

New asserted today that there is a reaction against the primary system among the American people.

CAUSE OF CORRUPTION

"It is a conscious failure and in the interest of good morals ought to be eliminated," he said. "It is the cause of more political corruption than any other one thing. It forces affairs like the Newberry case upon candidates for office. Under the convention system of nominating Senator Newberry would have been nominated for one fifth or less what it cost him."

"Men are nominated for office, who under the convention system would not have a look in. They get people to fall for the bribe. When they get into office the result is very disastrous to public welfare."

"These facts are beginning to be faced and there is, therefore a strong reaction against the primary system. Some states are already turning away from it and going back to the convention. New York did so recently. Other states will follow in my opinion."

"I worked for a primary law in Indiana years ago. We got it and we suffered a severe disappointment as a result of the way it operated."

CLEVELAND PACKERS PLAN PURCHASE OF LIVESTOCK DIRECT FROM FARMERS

A. J. Gallagher, Ohio Packing Co., and W. P. Salisbury, Emory Commission Co., Cleveland stock buyers, toured Allen and Hardin-cos Thursday in company with C. F. Mertz, manager of the Allen-co Livestock Co.

They inspected several large livestock farms, among them the farm of John Kerr, deceased. They are hoping to be able to buy livestock directly from the farmers.

This is one of the activities of the Allen-co cooperative shipping campaign among the farmers. By bringing shippers and buyers together on the farms a better price for the stock is obtainable, Mertz says.

A sale was made recently by this plan and it was very successful, Mertz states. Owners of large numbers of hogs or cattle are expected to avail themselves of this service, offered by the Allen-co Livestock Co., and sell their stock direct to packing plants.

Mr. Enright was divorced at Reno two years ago by Maginel Wright Enright, also an artist. Miss McComas has "been married before but this is not her first romance."

A year ago she was made the sole beneficiary under the will of Howard J. Flannery of Pittsburgh, to whom she had been engaged. The amount of the bequest was reported to be several millions.

Miss McComas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McComas of Los Angeles.

U. S. PLANS FORCE IN COAL STRIKE

Harding Determined to End Tieup of Mines

FUEL RESERVE RUNNING LOW

President Sees Need of Prompt, Drastic Action

(BY HERBERT W. WALKER)

MARION—(United Press)—President Harding has virtually decided that next week, upon his return to Washington, he must begin to exert pressure upon coal operators and miners to force a termination of the nation wide mine strike, it was learned here today.

With the operator-miner coal conference adjourned pending his return to Washington, Harding, during his vacation here, has given considerable consideration to the government's next move in the deadlocked coal situation.

It is understood that he has discussed the matter with Attorney General Daugherty, who arrived here today from Washington Court House, Ohio, where his mother has been seriously ill.

CONFERENCE PLANNED

Before the next move of the government is revealed, it will be discussed in Washington by Harding with Secretaries Hoover, Davis and Fall, who have been representing the government in the operator-miner meetings.

The executive is said to be doubtful that the strike can be settled by voluntary conferences of the operators and miners. He is determined that the public safety must not be menaced by a fuel shortage and the coal reserves are dwindling so low that the only solution seems prompt and forceful action on the part of the executive.

STRIKERS ENJOINED

COLUMBUS—(United Press)—A temporary injunction restraining striking coal miners in Perry-co from interfering with coal loaders and strip miners in that district has been issued here by Federal Judge Sater.

The court also has ordered the strikers to keep off the property of the coal companies. Hearing on a permanent injunction will be heard soon, Judge Sater said.

Coal loaders, driven from their work Tuesday, appeared before Judge Sater and told incidents leading up to the burning of their camp near New Straitsville. One was killed and several injured.

Judge Sater's latest order is a revival of a former one which has been set aside by an agreement between operators and miners.

DISORDER IN OHIO

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Adjutant General Florence today stated that coal stripping operations in Belmont-co will be suspended for a few days until the tense situation there has subsided. Troops for military protection have been requested.

Lieutenant Colonel Chalmers R. Wilson, sent into the territory to make investigation, recommended that no troops be sent.

Late yesterday Federal Judge Sater revived the injunction against union miners interfering with slack loading operations of the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company near New Straitsville, upon a showing that workmen had been attacked last Tuesday evening, resulting in the death of Thomas Marshall, a cook and the wounding of several other workmen.

The coal of which the slack pile was composed was mined about thirty years ago, according to a statement made to the court by C. C. Ferguson, vice president of the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. Shortages in slack have begun to appear, it was stated, as the result of the strike so the owners believing it could be sold, hired shovellers to load it into cars.

Reports received late last night by Mr. Ferguson stated that the entire camp including tents, shacks and beds, the coal tipple and personal property of the men had been totally destroyed.

Twenty-four men were in the loading gang.

Unable to get protection from civil authorities, Ferguson said he had not dared to send men there to claim Marshall's body.

TAR BARRIER IS DEMONSTRATED

Farm Bureau Inaugurates Fight on Chinch Bug Pest

Demonstration tar barriers to keep chinch bugs from damaging corn fields are being applied this week by H. J. Ridge, county farm agent.

A tar barrier was used on the A. A. Miller farm in American-tp Wednesday and one will be laid around a corn field cultivated by it. H. Evans, two miles west of Gomer, at 6:30 p. m. Thursday.

Barriers have also been applied on the farms of Samuel Lutz, Amanda-tp, Spencer Harrod, Auglaize-tp, and on the Baxter farm on the Al-lentown-rd.

Ridge requests that all farmers residing near one of these farms make it a point to inspect the tar barrier and to apply one of their own. Unless this is done the corn will be severely damaged this year, he believes.

In using the tar barrier, a furrow several inches deep is plowed around the field of corn. At the top of the ridge next to the corn a thin line of tar is poured.

Postholes several feet deep are dug about 10 feet apart in the center of the furrow. Chinch bugs, turned back by the tar barrier, fall into the post holes and are easily killed.

Practically every investigation of grain fields made by Ridge and other farm experts has shown that the chinch bugs are thicker this year than for many years.

Extensive damage will be seen unless the farmers protect their crops with this barrier. Every farmer has an opportunity to see how the work should be done by visiting one of the demonstration barriers, Ridge believes.

LIMA PEOPLE INVEST IN TREASURY CERTIFICATES

Sale of treasury savings certificates is continuing steadily and constantly at the Lima postoffice, according to announcement made by Postmaster A. E. Gale Thursday.

Large numbers of Lima people are becoming regular investors, he states.

"Our June sales totaled $13,775," Gale said. If held for five years, the certificates are redeemable for 25 per cent more than the purchase price.

They are issued in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $25 and being in a registerable form, are "loss proof." They can be redeemed at any time prior to maturity, it is stated.

PEACE SOUGHT BY BRAZIL REBELS

Unconditional Surrender, Government's Demand

INSURGENTS HOLDING OUT

Groups of the Army and Navy in Revolt

(By MILES W. VAUGHN)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil—(United Press)—Brazilian government forces are rapidly dominating the situation which resulted from the revolt by groups of the army and navy, according to a statement issued by the secretary to President Pessoa to the United Press.

For Copacabana, where all the sailors of the garrison and most of the soldiers revolted, is reported to have asked for government representatives to discuss surrender. The government replied that only unconditional surrender would be considered.

The statement to the United Press by the president's secretary stated:

"The military school and the fifteenth battalion of the army revolted and marched towards Villa Militar. Enroute the party encountered a group of government troops which defeated the rebels."

"All the sailors and a majority of the soldiers in Fort Copacabana revolted. The fort was surrounded by land and sea and is still resisting."

STRONG UNDERCURRENT
Altho surface conditions were quiet here during the early stages of the revolt, a strong undercurrent of excitement was evident. This manifested itself in many reports, none of which could be verified.

The newspaper Gazeta Noticias published a bulletin stating that Dr. Edmundo Bittencourt, proprietor of the newspaper Correio Do Manha, one of the leading government opposition papers, had been "imprisoned" in the marine barracks. Another report was that a detachment of marines was searching for Nilo Pecanha, one of the most prominent figures in Brazilian history, intending to imprison him if captured.

Marshal Hermes Fonseca, commanding general of the army has not yet been located. Various reports regarding his whereabouts are current. One that he is in Fort Copacabana, another that he is in another military camp near the city and another that he escaped from Fort Copacabana.

The Brazilian dreadnaught Minas Geraes is reported shelling Fort Copacabana which is reported to be the last stronghold of the mutineers. President Pessoa met the situation by asking the chamber to declare a state of siege for 30 days in Rio and the federal district, which the chamber unanimously approved.

The senate is expected to act promptly upon the measure.

The Jornal do Commercio declared that when the 15 battalions revolted, General Da Costa assumed command of the government troops at Villa Militar and rapidly crushed the rebels. It adds that the submarine movement at the military aviation school which started the revolt was under command of Lieutenant Aviator Comandante. After a sharp clash, says the paper, the mutineers from the aviation school surrendered.

FINES LEVIED IN CASES OF IMPROPER TAG USAGE

Stiff fines were handed H. Hunsaker, West Cairo, and J. D. Baker, 339 W. North-st. Thursday in criminal court for misuse of auto license tags. Each was fined $25, but $15 in the Hunsaker case was remitted on condition that he fulfill his promise of applying for a proper transfer of his tag.

Police charged Hunsaker with operating an auto with a license issued for another car. He admitted it. His car will be held at headquarters police say, until they receive certification that Hunsaker has applied to the state registrar for a transfer.

Baker was accused of operating a service truck with a dealer's license tag.

Close scrutiny of the statutes by Acting Criminal Judge E. M. Dotkin failed to reveal a penalty less than $25 for an offense such as cited against Hunsaker and Baker.

COMPLETES 50 YEARS IN HARDWARE BUSINESS, WITH FIRMS DIRECTED BY JONES

Andrew A. Reid, 522 S. West-st., after completing 50 years in the hardware business as an employee of various firms, has retired at the age of 66, he announced Thursday.

Reid, who is better known as "Andy," started in the hardware business with the late Thomas R. Jones, at Pomeroy in 1872. He came to Lima in 1897, with Thomas R. Jones & Son. Later he was with the Jones Hardware Co. and latterly with the Jones-Branson Co.

Two remarkable things stand out in Reid's case he feels. One is that he was engaged in the same line of business for 50 years and the other is the fact that he was always employed by firms in which a Jones was interested.

75 ARE INJURED IN COLLISION

Fast Train Wrecked by Hitting Engine at Porter, Ind.

CHICAGO—(Associated Press)—Seventy-five persons were injured, only one seriously, when a Chicago-bound Pere Marquette passenger train crashed into a New York Central engine on a siding near Porter, Ind., late last night. The train proceeded to Chicago this morning after the injured received first aid.

Officials of both railroads began an investigation immediately. Early today responsibility for the crash had not been fixed.

The negro cook on the dining car was the only person reported to have been seriously injured.

The collision occurred near the scene of the smashup of New York Central and Michigan Central trains last year when thirty-seven persons were killed.

It was not until the train reached Chicago that news of the accident became known.

The train was made up of three sleeping cars, a diner and several coaches.

The New York Central engine was standing on a siding when the Pere Marquette passenger ran into it, thru a presumably open or defective switch, according to railroad officials.

Judge A. G. Adams of the Chicago court of domestic relations, a passenger, said the train was making 60 miles an hour when it hit the switch but was slowed to approximately 25 before it crashed into the engine.

SHOOTING CASE IN JUVENILE COURT

Gun User Under Age—Ridenour Admits Holdup Plan

Juvenile court will air the shooting with intent to wound charge preferred against Lawrence Ridenour, 17, farmer, Linwood, 6, by George, 129 W. Third-st. According to police, Ridenour shot at George, some time after the latter refused acceptance of an alleged bad check for $73.50 which Ridenour gave George in payment for a horse.

Ridenour was arrested at 11:35 p. m. Wednesday by Detective Kinkor at his home. When booked at headquarters he gave his age as 19, but Thursday, as preparations were made to arraign him in criminal court, it was disclosed he is only 17.

The alleged shooting took place, police say, June 29 when George accepted an invitation to go with Ridenour to the farm where he kept the horse. Ridenour rode ahead and when George arrived he met Ridenour coming back, a handkerchief tied over his face.

He asked George to step into an adjoining woods, according to police, and upon the latter's refusal by walking away, Ridenour whipped out a revolver and shot four times, it is alleged.

The accused admitted to police he intended staging a holdup, but denied he shot to wound George. The shots were for the purpose of frightening George, Ridenour said.

RAILWAY STRIKE NEAR END?

Peace Parley With Shop Men Expected Soon

JEWELL READY TO CONFER

Explains His Failure to Answer Board's Summons

CHICAGO—(Associated Press)

The strike of railway shop men assumed a more conciliatory aspect today and feeling became more general in rail circles that the last twenty-four hours had shown a marked trend toward peace, despite increased disorders at scattered points.

It was believed that yesterday's exchange of letters between Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board, and E. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, probably opened the way to negotiations for an early settlement of the controversy.

JAIL DOORS OPEN FOR STATES

Released by Commissioners as Money Saving Move

OTHERS MAY GET FREEDOM

Will Pay $1,000 Fine on Installment Plan

Arthur States, son of J. Aaron States, convicted before Justice of the Peace E. M. Borkin, on a charge of possession of liquor, walked free from Allen-co jail Wednesday night. He was paroled by the county commissioners after serving four months on a $1,000 fine. States is the first prisoner to be released in this manner by the commissioners. Others may be let go in like fashion, it is hinted.

Terms of States' parole are that he pay the county $7 each month. Failure to pay will mean that he will be returned to jail to serve out his sentence.

BOARD COST IS BIG

Decision to release States and perhaps other liquor violators came when it was learned that his board for the four months he had spent behind the bars has cost the county nearly $100. Had he been kept in jail until the $1,000 fine was paid out at rate of 60 cents a day, it would have cost Allen-co taxpayers a total of $124.50.

Paroling liquor violators, Commissioner John Thompson said in commenting on the matter, seems to offer a solution to the problem that has been vexing the board.

Other counties he said are meeting it by putting the men in the county for a few days each year. States still owes the county some $925. At $7 a month he will have 11 years in which to pay out.

"We believe that this is the best way to handle the matter," declared Thompson. "The county does not get the money anyway. It goes to the state. He will be paying in $84 a year, and the county will save some $270 on his fee."

Another motive actuating the commissioners is the fact that the county jail is no fit place for holding prisoners for long terms.

There is no work for the inmates beyond a few routine duties and space is so cramped that there is no place to exercise men in confinement.

Nice new apples, Dorsey's.

WARMER, MORE RAIN ON WAY

Weather conditions are almost as slow in getting back to "normalcy" as are business affairs, as Ted sees it.

The weather forecaster has it that "it will be fair and warmer tonight; Friday increasing cloudiness, probably followed by showers and thunderstorms."

The little weather guy who features this assembly of paragraphs daily is "set" for most anything that may eventuate in temperature conditions. The chill snap of several days' duration is slowly giving way to mercury mounting and with it comes prediction of more rain.

Timid folks fear forecasts of thunderstorms, when they recall the destructiveness of unusual vibrations of wind. However, Lima has been fortunate in being given a wide berth by cyclones and tornadoes. The hope prevails that the same conditions will prevail in this respect in the future.

PETITION TRANSFER OF PERRY-TP FUNDS

ORDINANCE TEST IN DAMAGE SUIT

Jury Secured in Claim For $1,025 By C. E. Stevens

Validity of a city ordinance requiring an automobile to come to a full stop when passengers are getting on and off a street car at a street crossing, may be tested in a damage suit for $1,025 brought by Charles E. Stevens, 714 1-2 S. Main-st., against Jerry Spiece.

A jury to try the case were secured Wednesday morning. Judge Fred C. Becker will hear the case in common pleas court.

Spiece alleges that he was struck and injured by a car driven by Spiece, while boarding a car at the corner on Main and Kibby-sts, July 6, 1921.

Spiece was driving in Kibby-st and cut north into Main-st on the left hand side of the thoroughfare, it is alleged.

Stevens holds that he went out into the street to board the street car, relying on the ordinance requiring vehicles to stop to protect him. The jury hearing the case comprises: William Roeder, Helen Cox, G. W. Crider, S. G. Parks, Syl Shu-

SOLONS IN FIST FIGHT IN LEGISLATIVE HALL

BATON ROUGE, La. — A fist fight on the floor of the Louisiana house of representatives between Senator J. O. Stewart of Lake Charles, and Representative F. Claiborne, of New Roads, was the chief topic of conversation about the capital today.

Mr. Claiborne came from the enclosure in which both men delivered blows, with a bleeding cheek. The fight followed a heated tilt in connection with a senate bill.

The force of Senator Stewart's blow caused Mr. Claiborne to spin around in the center aisle of the house chamber until he tripped and fell face forward, striking against a chair. A committee was appointed to investigate Senator Stewart's action in coming into the house and engaging in a fight with a member of that body.

Sale of Farm Light Plant

Presents Opportunity for Dealers

The enthusiasm with which Westinghouse Light and Power Plants have been received by men both in the trade and out arises, we believe, from two sources—the appearance of the plant itself, and the good will Westinghouse has built by sound manufacturing policies and consistent advertising. To high grade men the exclusive agency for this plant in certain territories, with the sale of electric appliances and supplies, offers exceptional opportunity. The farm market has "come back". Westinghouse with a comprehensive merchandising plan is helping dealers establish themselves as farm electrical headquarters in their communities. LITTLE THIEVERY OF MAIL HERE

Postoffice Inspector Comments on the Lima Situation

FEW CASES OF DISHONESTY

Cordrey Tells How Far U. S. Responsibility Goes

Lima's mail service has been remarkably free from the workings of petty thieves, J. B. Cordrey, postoffice inspector, says.

In many cities the delivery of mail is hindered by persons who extract mail from receptacles placed on houses or in apartment buildings, he said.

Very seldom is the loss of mail reported in Lima and when such complaints are received, the investigation often shows that the mail matter was lost while in the possession of the addressor or the addressee, he said.

U. S. RESPONSIBILITY

Logically, the United States has no power over mail after it has been placed in a residence letter box, but federal experts exert every effort to find the culprits and bring charges against them.

In most cases where mail is stolen from a residence or a mail box not the property of the postoffice, charges of burglary, forgery or false impersonation are laid against the personation. These charges are tried by the state courts.

It has been found that many of those stealing from the house letter boxes are children. In cases of this kind the children are turned over to the juvenile authorities as delinquents, Cordrey said.

Many times clerks lose mail matter while removing it from the postoffice and carrying it to their offices. Should the letter dropped contain a check or money, the postal authorities would have no jurisdiction.

In this case the person who finds it and uses the money or signs and collects the amount of the check is liable to conviction for forgery in the courts.

CAUTION IS URGED

Postoffice authorities request those handling large quantities of mail to be very careful in moving it, as much of the loss is due to carelessness on the part of employees and not to dishonesty.

Dishonesty among the employees of the Lima postoffice is something never even thought of by the federal agents. It has been a long time since any employee was even suspected of complicity in the disappearance of mail matter, Cordrey said.

In some instances employees yield to temptation and steal mail or money, but the Lima postoffice is more along the lines of a large family rather than a mere machine and no trouble is seen, officials say.

JUDGE BECKER HAS SPAYD CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

Decision as to the merits of sour mash as a beverage or food is up to Judge Fred C. Becker, who has taken the case of Harry Spayd, American-born former and coal dealer, under advisement.

Spayd was tried in common pleas court on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor. John Beach, a farm hand and former racing driver, testified as to a sale of whiskey. Beach was arrested in an intoxicated condition on Elm-st road June 19. A flask said to contain liquor was found in his possession.

Beach is serving time in the county jail at present. He formerly drove on Ohio race courses under the name of "Hobo Jack."

Two raids on the Spayd farm failed to reveal either liquor or a still, but eight barrels of mash was found.

The state contends the mash was intended for making moonshine. Spayd avers it was intended for feeding hogs.

YOUR FEARS

WHAT are you most afraid of? Maybe your supreme dread is poverty. Or it may be a loaded gun. Or a certain disease. Frequently fear centers unexplainably on some simple thing that has little or nothing in it to excite terror.

Brave Julius Caesar shook and chattered at lightning. He fled to the dark depths of caves when storms gathered.

Alexander the Great was deathly afraid of cats. The sight of a harmless, purring pussy caused him to throw fits.

Fear, of all kinds, is believed by scientists to be due to chemical abnormalities of the adrenal glands, small capsules attached to the kidneys.

The adrenals of some people react peculiarly in certain situations or in the presence of certain objects. The nervous system, emotions and even mental balance are upset by failure of the adrenals to harmonize with the encounter.

Another peculiarity of the adrenal glands is their close connection with violent emotions, such as fits of anger. The person with a bad temper has defective adrenal glands.

Aroused by passion, the adrenals generate chemical substances known as hormones. These are shot into the blood. They make the heart beat rapidly, the hands shake, "a red film" come over the eyes. You have observed these symptoms in people overcome with rage.

Do the adrenal glands cause outbursts of temper? Or does temper upset the workings of the adrenals?

Take your choice of the two. No matter which you select, you will find scientists ready to back you up.

This much is certain—that the will power can be called into play as a brake on the emotions, especially anger.

People who are subject to outbursts of temper should know that giving way to these emotional impulses literally tears their health to pieces. Anger wrecks the nerves, strains the heart, upsets the digestion.

A fit of anger shortens life.

A great deal is being written these days about the adrenals and other endocrine glands. It is important that people should not accept glandular theories as an alibi for personal deficiencies such as anger. That is the easy way, for it is human nature to seek an alibi as an excuse for individual defects.

Meet your glands halfway. Keep the body and emotions under the control of will power, as much as possible. Barring geniuses, the glands constantly are trying to be normal. The mind has definite powers in assisting them to perform normally.

WELCOME, TOM PEARMAN

ONE often hears the expression, uttered in a spirit of sincerity, when a stranger appears within the gates of Lima, "Welcome to our City." Loyal Lima boosters feel they have a right to express such a greeting and they take a pride in doing it.

The song of the poet is often recalled by many, "Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself hath said, this is my own, my native land?" This also can be made applicable to one's state, his county, his city. It is in that spirit a welcome is extended to T. P. Pearman, newly chosen general secretary of the Lima Y. M. C. A. The institution which Pearman has been engaged to direct is needed by Lima. In turn, it needs this city—its resources and its people.

There is no institution within the boundaries of Lima that is performing a greater public service than the "Y. M. C. A." It deserves and is being accorded the right sort of support. It makes little difference who is chosen as the directing head of the great institution, its work will go on. The directors of the "Y. M. C. A." have honored Tom Pearman in bringing him here and giving him a great task to perform. That he will have the cooperation that is needful to accomplish success, is assured. Lima is proud of its Y. M. C. A. The people of this city extend a hearty welcome to Tom Pearman as the instrument chosen to continue its splendid progress.

VALUE OF EDUCATION

AN education increases the average person's earning power $40,000 during his lifetime. Admitting that the estimate is correct, parents are giving their child a mortgage on $40,000 when they send them thru ward school, high school and college, or $2500 for each year spent in school. Tell this to the child who wants to quit school and go to work. On top of the $40,000 is the far greater value of education to the intellect and soul.

AS YOU LIKE IT

These Chinese armies ought to be good at re-creating. They dress with their shirt-tails out.

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who was raising a husband and 10 children?

When a man steps on your hat that's one overhead expense under-foot.

Ireland is having a hard time, but just wait until she tries to pass a soldier bonus.

California is growing Turkish tobacco. Guess they blame Los Angeles.

When an undertaker sees an unscreened restaurant he goes home and gets out his coffin catalogs.

There is a bright side. If you don't enjoy your vacation you will enjoy coming back.

It is easy to be boss in your home. All you have to do is send the rest of the family away.

The man who wakes up and finds himself famous hasn't been asleep.

Maybe the Confederate veteran who walked 614 miles in 80 days was practicing for the railroad strike.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

BY BERTON BRALEY

JUBILATION

My vacation starts today!
Work, you poor, deluded slaves!
I am off to loaf and play
By the pleasant cooling waves;
While you fume and grieve and sweat,
I shall gambol far away—
Just as far as I can get
My vacation starts today.

I shall often think of you
As I dance, or sail, or swim,
I shall think of how you stew
In the city, dusty, grim
Picture post-cards I shall mail
Showing lovely scenes—and ladies,
While you earn your measly kake
In an office as hot as Hades.

I shall write you that I sleep
Under blankets every night;
Tell you how the fishes leap,
And how hungry they bite;
For a fortnight I shall be
Just an idler, blithe and gay—
While you're drudging, I'll be free!
My vacation starts today.

You can chortle, gloat and scoff
When YOU'RE gone and I must stay;
But today—oh, boy, I'm off!
My vacation starts today!

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well.
LIVING A LONG LIFE

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

Every few days we read in magazine or paper of someone who has passed the century mark in a hale and hearty condition of health. Most of them have adhered to a very strict hygienic life, tho the habit has become so common a one that they are prone to look about for some other more spectacular reason when they try to explain their success in keeping well.

Public health work, itself, is doing a lot to make our chances of a long and useful life better.

There has been an increase of two and three quarter years in the life span in the last decade. This is shown in a life table for the year 1920 which has just been constructed. At birth, the complete expectation of life is now 54.3 as compared with 51.5 years in 1910 and 49.2 in 1901. The total addition to the expectation of life is five years in the last two decades. The duration of life has been stretched a fifth in less than one generation. The tables also show an improvement in the death-rate in middle life and in old age and a corresponding improvement in the expectation. The 1910 figures show that after age 45, the death-rate showed hardly any improvement and at some ages, such as at 60 and over, showed actual increases. This no longer holds. On the contrary, there is a slight but wholesome tendency toward improvement in the figures for the older ages.

To lunch at my chambers on a ferrage of patriotic food-stuffs, which escaped Independence day consumption. Out to learn that Dick Ramseyer, the old author of City Book store renown, had left town and back to Dayton gone. Wanted to see him. Spoke in fine fryndliness to Uncle Bill Russler, the noble Sage of Shawnee. And along comes near-Sheriff Jenkins, the brave photographer, with a good farm as an annex.

In the evening, dined well on a roast. And gaswaggoned about here and there; learning much of city excavating and of repairs. Read long on a silly tavis, but of a lovely girl, if she was as told by her historian. Albeit, angry became when it ended to be concluded. So to bed.

HARDING IS ACCUSED AS VIOLATOR OF DRY LAWS

President Could Close Bar Rooms on Ships, Senator Caraway Declares—Claims Legal Advice Furnished by Wet Attorney

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press.) President Harding is charged by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, in the Senate today with flagrant violation of the prohibition laws in permitting the sale of liquor on shipping board. The senator said "all Christians Americans protest" against such sale of liquor.

Elmer Schlesinger, general counsel of the shipping board, who gave the opinion that sale of liquor was legal on American vessels beyond the territorial limits of the United States, was described by Senator Caraway as a "wet" and an attorney for interests which fought the prohibition act.

"The man responsible for the most flagrant violation of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act is the president of the United States," said Senator Caraway. "With a stroke of a pen he could close more bar rooms than have ever been in the history of the world. The president could instruct the shipping board to close the saloons on all ships operated by the Emergency Fleet Corporation. The president knows, all know, that were he to give such an order Mr. Lasker would obey it."

"Every ship that sails beneath the American flag owned, operated or leased by the shipping board sells whiskey by the express or implied permission of the president of the United States. Tomorrow all of them would be dry if he willed it."

COMMISSION WILL "SIT TIGHT"

No Attention Paid to Attack on Time, Bingham Says

Resolutions adopted by various organizations condemning daylight saving are believed by city officials to be for the purpose of keeping interest awake until the vote on the question in November has been taken.

Resolutions have been in force for more than a month and while there has been some dissatisfaction in certain quarters, none of it has been taken a definite form, Bingham said.

To rescind the action of the city commission more organized effort would be required than that seen to date the manager said. City officials are of the opinion that the majority of the people are satisfied with the change and are not inclined to pay any attention to petitions.

Lima will have an opportunity to vote for or against daylight saving for next year at the November elections. An active campaign will be waged at that time, leaders of both sides promise. Central time will be resumed October 1.

COURT CLERK HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Revolver in Hands of Officer Cook Accidentally Discharged

Little more than a foot of space separated Miss Esther Heffner, clerk in criminal court, from death Thursday about 11 a. m. when a pistol in the hands of Virgil Cook, clerk of the police record department, was accidentally exploded in the court office located above headquarters.

The bullet whizzed past Miss Heffner's ear, tore off the edge of a door casement, glared at the wall and ricocheted thru a window glass, falling to the sidewalk below.

Cook exhibited the pistol, a 41-calibre, two-shot derringer of Mexican type, to Miss Heffner and a trade for a pearl-handled pistol she owned was struck up.

After examining the derringer, the girl handed it back to Cook, who placed his thumb on the hammer and started to draw it back from safety position. His thumb slipped and an explosion, heard in other parts of the building, but not traced, followed.

Nothing was known of the incident until a newspaper reporter went upstairs, picked up the gun from a table and noticed that one barrel was empty and that it was loaded with fresh powder marks.

Then the broken window glass attracted his attention and the story was given him.

Cook bowed and collapsed and Miss Heffner was thoroughly frightened.

OXIDATION PLAN IS FAVORED

Commission May Adopt System of Sewage Reduction

STATE HEALTHERS OPPOSED

Guarantee Offered by Men Back of Project

Eastern bankers are ready to post a bond with the city that the direct oxidation method of sewage disposal will be perfectly satisfactory. H. J. Hirst told Lima officials Thursday when a conference was held.

They are willing to guarantee that the cost of construction and operation will be less than the sprinkler-filter system, approved by the state board of health on a previous occasion, Hirst said.

Roland Taylor, of the Dillon-Read Co., New York City is at the head of Philadelphia bankers who are ready to present a negotiable bond to the city and guarantee success, Hirst told commissioners.

Refusal of the state board of health to approve the direct oxidation plant until certain features were "cleared up" made the conference with the sewage experts necessary.

CITY HEADS AMAZED

City commissioners were amazed at the action of the state board inasmuch as the body had already approved a sprinkler-filter plant for Lima, the like of which has never been constructed, it is stated.

"Sewage treatment as outlined by George B. Fuller for Lima is an absolute experiment and their plans will show where they do not have full faith in it and have made room for further installation if it fails," Hirst told commissioners.

Sprinkler filter plants have been failures in other cities. Mayor Harold Cunningham asserted. At Columbus the plant is operated only seven months a year and vegetation for many miles down stream from the plant has been killed by the effluent, he said.

Careful investigation by city officials shows that the effluent from the direct oxidation plant is not poisonous or offensive and that bacteria are killed by the process, Cunningham said.

A direct oxidation plant will cost $450,000, while a sprinkler filter plant will cost $750,000 to construct, Hirst estimates. This shows a saving of $300,000 in the first cost.

Operation of the plant, based on experience at Allentown, Pa., and Phillipsburg, N. J., will run $36.73 per day per million gallons of sewage handled. This is estimated on a 4,000,000 gallon per day basis.

SAVING SHOWN

It was noted the city of Lima would save $10,000 a year in costs of operation alone, Hirst claims. His company is ready to operate the plant at these figures if the city wishes a guarantee, he asserted.

In the direct oxidation method the sewage is treated with lime and electricity. The sludge resulting is practically odorless and the effluent is both odorless and colorless, reports by experts say.

If this plan is adopted there will be no discomfort to any of the residents living within a short distance from the plant, they assert. If the sprinkler-filter system is adopted no such guarantee can be made, Hirst told the commissioners.

Both Ellis Jones and Earl Rohn, city commissioners, stated they are satisfied that the direct oxidation system would be the best for Lima and believe that the adoption of any other system would be a mistake.

MAY ACT QUICK

They are in favor of telling the state board of health that Lima believes it better to install the tried oxidation system rather than a filter system, acknowledged to be an experiment, they said.

It is believed that the city will present the full facts together with the bond offered by the Philadelphia syndicate to the state board and request an immediate approval of the oxidation system.

Strikers also discounted threats made by L. E. & W. officials that the car shop now located here would be moved from the city unless the strike is settled soon. They characterized the threat as a "scare" to "disturb" the men.

ANSWER FROM MEN

Their first official statement, issued to The Lima News Thursday morning, is as follows:

Editor, The Lima News,

Dear Sir:

In answer to your communication wherein you state your desire to give a square deal to the railroad men who have quit work, we want to say to you that we appreciate the stand you have taken. That is all we ask from the public and the Railway Wage Board.—A square deal.

It was reported to us that two strikebreakers are, or at least were, armed on the Fourth of July, about 8 p. m. We were informed that a certain hardware dealer left his home about 7 o'clock that evening in order to meet railroad officials and furnish the firearms for these men. This matter is being handled by us thru the proper authorities.

Carmen are receiving benefits from their organization while on strike.

Up to this time there have been no strikebreakers at the B. and O. and Lake Erie in the city.

The following is our opinion of Mr. Maglin's threat to move the L. E. & W. shops from this city: We believe that he has no authority to make such statements. All he is trying to do is to disturb the men. We may expect him to say almost anything that has been our experience in the past.

We would ask the public to kindly remember that this nation-wide action of the railway employees was taken only after about fourteen months conference with the Wage Board and the railroad officials concerning the matter of putting their work in contract shops in violation of the decision of the Wage Board.

Signed,

THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN.

Information received at the strike headquarters here Thursday that the walkout on the L. E. & W. is now 100 per cent. Men employed in all shops within a radius of 100 miles from this city, and all employed in shops in the state of New York were reported out.

Maintenance of way men, the Lima strikers declared, are expected to be added to the ranks of the striking shopmen, by Saturday of this week.

No reports they said at a late hour Thursday could be had concerning the mysterious departure of a number of Lima foremen, for Cincinnati. They could get no information either on the object of the visit of the men to Cincinnati, or any other details.

PROCEDURE BUSINESSLIKE

The atmosphere at strike headquarters located in musician's hall on the Public Square is one of business thoroughness. Committees are almost constantly in session, while men who have been doing picket duty, or those who are about to go on a picket shift, are streaming in and out of headquarters, reporting in and out as they go.

Reports are carefully registered by officers in charge of the pickets. Notes are made on practically everything that occurs. Nothing escapes their attention.

Delegations of men are ordered to investigate all reports of doubtful nature, while officers of the allied crafts form impromptu bodies that act upon matters that need rapid decisions. No one is admitted to strike headquarters unless he is a registered member of a union and one of those who walked out with the shopmen last Saturday. All others who seek admittance to the headquarters must first be given the approval of the general chairman before allowed in the hall.

There is practically no loitering around the hall. The men move back and forth only as business calls them. The organization works with the orderliness and precision of a machine.

Bloodhounds may be employed by Auglaize-co authorities in tracking to earth what is considered the county's meanest chicken thief.

The man sought not only robbed Alice Lusk, 15, Unioopolis, of her five pure blood Plymouth Rocks, but stole her chance to win the prize at the county fair next fall for raising the best coop in the county poultry club.

She reported to authorities Thursday that someone had stolen four roosters and a pullet she was raising in competition with a score or more other girls and boys in the county.

LONDON — (Special) — Greater frankness in sex matters as a means of cleansing public opinion was advocated at the conference of the Church of England Men's Societies, held at Leicester under the chairmanship of the Archbishop of York.

Supporting this idea, Dr. Leonard P. Knutsford, medical officer of Knutsford Test School, declared that women's legs have ceased to be fussed about since the war introduced the "healthy and seemly skirt."

"When the subject of sex is brought out into the open, suggestiveness will lose much of its power. It is the half-draped figure which excites, not the nude statue."

Dr. G. S. Hughes, another author, declared: "All that can be said for certain is that the Victorian standard of morality is not being maintained, and modesty is to some extent looked upon as a sign of foolishness rather than of virtue."

ONE-FIFTH OF BUDGET TENTATIVELY AGREED UPON BY CITY HEADS

About one-fifth of the budget for the last half of the present city fiscal year has been tentatively decided upon, C. A. Bingham, City manager, said Thursday.

Items for which appropriations have been set are included under general expense. Appropriations under the special departments are still in a very confused state.

Concentrated attention will be given to the budget during the remainder of the week, as it must be ready for passage by the city commission at the meeting Monday night, it is stated.

No copies of the budget will be printed, as the charter provisions call for the printing of 500 copies and public hearings only in the case of a yearly budget.

Due to the fact that Lima never had a budget prior to this year, it was a very difficult matter to estimate for an entire year.

The budget for the first half of the year was more or less an experiment. Appropriations now in the making will be much more accurate and the budget next year should be scientific, Bingham said.

PREPARATIONS UNDER WAY

Workers Cleaning up Property Strongly Guarded

PITTSBURGH. — (Associated Press.) — Forces of workmen today began cleaning up two mines in the Pittsburgh bituminous district preparatory to operations under a scale which the Pittsburgh Coal Producers' Association offered to the miners and which the miners rejected before the strike became effective April 1, last.

Several days will be required to put the properties in condition to hoist coal. They were under guard of Washington-co deputy sheriffs and early reports from the mines said there was no disorder.

IMPORTANT MINES

The points selected for first attempts at operation since the inception of the strike were Montour No. 4, of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Hill Station, Washington-co, and the Henderson mine of the Henderson Coal and Coke Company at Hendersonville, nearby. These mines are important properties on the Montour railroad, about twenty miles from Pittsburgh. There are more than 300 miners' houses at Montour number four and the streets are electric lighted. The Henderson plant is on the main highway between Pittsburgh and Cansonsburg and it, too, is provided with a large number of houses. Many of the houses at both mines are still occupied by strikers and their families.

COMPROMISE SCALE

Forfeiture of the Pittsburgh Coal Producers' Association to reach an agreement with the employees of its members began on March 13, when it asked for a conference with the district scale committee of the United Mine Workers. This request was denied on the ground that it was the policy to make no separate scale by districts. The association then posted at its mines a scale which was said to be a compromise between the demands of the miners and the 1917 scale.

All the union mines in the district were closed April 1, and have since remained closed with the exception of a mine near Washington.

On June 9, R. W. Gardiner, commissioner of the association, sent another letter to the union asking whether its position was the same as on March 13. P. T. Fagan, district vice-president, replied the same day, reaffirming the attitude of the union and declaring that no district agreement could be made.

Serious Accusations Made Against Lancaster Officials

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press.) — Charges that boys were shackled in rooms and forced to stand for hours and finally exhausted, taken to the hospital; that another boy was placed under a faucet where freezing water was run on his back for more than an hour, and that another lad was compelled to walk barefooted over a row of tacks, are alleged to be some of the sensational charges made against employees of the Boys' Industrial School, Lancaster, in a report by the Ohio Bureau of Public Efficiency, filed with Dr. H. S. MacAyeal, director of public welfare, today by R. F. Miles, in charge of the investigation made at the request of Governor Davis.

The report, covering more than 200 typewritten pages, filed personally by Miles and C. H. Mayhew, one of his assistants who has been aiding in the work, Thursday morning.

Dr. MacAyeal will not make the report public until he has made thorough examination of it.

Calvin Clay McPherson, 37, foreman of the assembly department of the Gramm-Bernstein company, died suddenly at his home, 414 Prospect-av., at 4:15 a. m. Thursday.

Mrs. McPherson heard her husband making a noise as if trying to speak. She called to him, but received no answer. Before she could switch on a light, he was dead. McPherson when he retired Wednesday evening, was in apparently good health. He had offered no complaint of illness within the past few months.

McPherson was born in Wayne-field. He is survived by the widow and a daughter, Audra, six years of age. McPherson was a member of the First Christian church and was affiliated with the Odd Fellow and Modern Woodmen lodges.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the First Christian church. Rev. E. A. Watkins, pastor, will officiate. Interment at Harrod cemetery.

RESULT OF BAR TO RHONDDA

Cabinet is Blamed for Decision Against Peers

LONDON — (Associated Press.) — Coalition members of Parliament are manifesting alarm as to what effect the refusal to allow peeresses to sit in the house of lords may have on the votes of women at the next general election. Should women in any large numbers vote against the governmental candidates it is certain that many of them would be defeated, and probably Premier Lloyd George would no longer be able to command a majority in parliament.

Therefore they are anxious that the government be not saddled with responsibility for a decision which was made by the lords themselves and in which the government was not openly involved.

Viscountess Rhondda and leaders of the women's movement generally are determined that the government shall be saddled with the responsibility which belongs to it and not be allowed to shrirk it if they can help it.

DECISION REVERSED

Lady Rhondda herself says that the decision to exclude peeresses from the upper chamber was virtually that of the government and not of the house of lords. She points out that the original house of lords committee on privileges decided by seven to one in favor of the right of peeresses to vote in the house. Ordinarily such a decision, supported by a majority, would have been adopted by the lords without question. But the lord Chancellor, Lord Birkenhead, a member of the cabinet, intervened with an amendment referring the matter back to the committee for reconsideration. And reconsideration by a committee which in the interval had been strengthened by lords of Lord Birkenhead's own way of thinking, resulted in reversing the seven to one decision. The committee decided 20 votes to four that peeresses should not sit and vote in the house of lords.

"It seems pretty certain," says Lady Rhondda, "that had it not been for the lord chancellor women otherwise qualified would not be excluded from the house of lords on the ground of sex."

The sex disqualification removal act starts with the opening generalization: "A person shall not be disqualified by sex or marriage from the exercise of any public function" and was loudly acclaimed as women's new charter of liberty.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I am coming to you for advice, for I am sure you will help me. I am a young girl, 17 years old, and in love with a young man of 19, who is keeping company with another girl. I do not know whether he cares for me or not, but he meets me every night in week days and all he does is talk to me. I would like to have him meet me in the evening, but he never does. He is not engaged to her yet. Do you think there is any chance for me?
PATTY.
NOW Patty, doesn't it strike you that you are putting yourself in rather a ridiculous position—falling in love with someone who has fallen in love with someone else? He probably likes you merely as a confidante, but he certainly is not worth the heartache you are working yourself into. There are so many other nice young men who might be perfectly willing to make you forget you ever loved the young man. Forget him.
Dear Susan:
Thru business associations, I met a very nice young man, who has taken me to lunch several times and told me a few choice words. I would like to have him call upon me at my home. Is it proper for me to ask him, or should he make the suggestion? Please answer.
DEB REED
It is your privilege to extend the invitation.
Dear Miss Smart:
Will you please answer the following:
(1) Who buys the announcements of a marriage—the person who announces it or the couple?
(2) When should they be sent, and to whom?
(3) Should they be sent to the groom's people, as well as the bride's?
(4) Do they call for gifts?
(5) Where can the announcement cards be printed?
(6) How should they be answered?
(7) What is the composition of "Orchard White," used as a bleach for freckles?
(8) What is done with the engagement ring during a ring ceremony wedding?
(9) What is the age of Rudolph Valentino?
(10) What is proper to wear at a quiet wedding?
R. H.
(1) The announcements of a marriage are usually purchased by the bride's parents, or the bride herself.
(2) Announcements should be sent to all near relatives and personal friends, at the convenience of the bride.
(3) Certainly. (4) An invitation to a wedding is usually answered with a gift, but a nannouncement may be answered merely with a card, although many people send a remembrance.
(5) At any job printing office.
(6) Announcements are answered with a card of congratulations and wishes for future happiness.
(7) The formula of orchard white is printed on the bottle. Lemon juice is the chief ingredient.
(8) The engagement ring may be given to one of the attendants, before the ceremony is begun.
(9) Rudolph Valentino is 23.
(10) Guests at a quiet home wedding usually wear some dark or light silk frock simply made.

MARIAN HALE FORECASTS STYLES

BY MARIAN HALE.
Begin now to get ready for your fall and winter personality.
Since gowns no longer fit the body, they simply must fit the mind. There must be a secret agreement somewhere.
Your mental attitude will determine whether you are in harmony with your clothes or if you are striking discord.
Clothes for this winter are rich, elegant and regal. To wear them properly you must look as if you felt that way, no matter what synthetic proportioning the family wallet may have attained.
The best anti-flapper propaganda I know of is being sent over now from Paris in the form of exquisitely feminine gowns, the very latest word in beauty and luxury.
I saw some of the new Adair creations being unwrapped. Let me assure you that the talk about the longer skirt is not mere idle gossip. Afternoon and evening gowns are down very near the ankles.
The fashionable hemline, however, is broken by draperies and loose panels.
Materials are very rich. Velvet was once quite splendid enough without trimming, now it is embroidered and beaded in the most gorgeous colors.
The silhouette remains practically the same. The waistline is low. While the general straight-line policy is followed, it allows all sorts of variation.
Fronts and backs are usually plain, save for embroidery or beading. Neck and nearly every frock has a side trimming of some sort.
The sleeveless frock is still fashionable, but is no longer in an undisputed position. There are close-fitting elbow sleeves on some frocks, and gracefully draped effects on others.
Many frocks are carried out entirely in one tone. Unrelieved red,

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Myers' guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Flenner, of Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Spenthoff, Toledo, have returned, after having passed the week here. Mr. and Mrs. Flenner are spending the summer in Detroit and returned to the Michigan city.
The marriage of Miss Margaret Beebe, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Beebe, 140 1-2 S. Main-st., and William Fenimore, of Springfield, was an event of June 26, according to announcement made Thursday. The marriage took place in Coldwater, Mich.
Mr. Fenimore is leading an orchestra at Lake James for the summer season. The bride has been employed in the office of the Gordon store. They will reside in Indianapolis, leaving for their home the first of October.
David N. Felsner, 334 W. North-st., was host at a dinner at Hotel Argonne, Wednesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert DeWentler (Louisa Felsner), whose marriage was a recent event. A basket of field daisies formed the centerpiece and yellow candles, tuile-laden, shed a mellow light over the scene. Place cards and nut baskets were carried out in the same cheerful color.
Guests were the Misses Dorothy Collins, Jane Bentley, Gertrude Boose, Jeanette Stolzenbach, Corinne Burroughs, Ruth Wells and her guest, Miss Alta Robbins, Hamilton; Clara Louise Allen, Fostoria; Messrs. Ralph P. Mackenzie, Dwight Hall, Warren Bisinger, Beach Abrams, Vincent McGraw, Harry Strauburg, Joseph Gooding, Douglas Andrews and Edward Hitz, New York City.

Members of the Primrose club will assemble at 9 a. m. Friday at the interurban station, E. Market-st., in preparation for the trip to Delphos to spend the day with Mrs. C. H. Swift. The car over the Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima railway will leave at 9.20 a. m.
Mrs. Charles Farley and daughter Dorothy, 817 W. Spring-st., have motored to Chicago for a stay with friends.

WHOM SHALL MOLLY MARRY? ONE OF MANNING'S HAREM?

So Wheeler Charges In Jealous Rage—Anger Spurs Molly to Prepare for Flight On the Midnight Express
By ZOE BECKLEY
Romance came swiftly into the life of MOLLY WAYNE that night of the dance in the Midvale Boat Club. She knew that three men were deeply in love with her: BEN WHEELER, keen and efficient manufacturer, BILLY BARTON, youthful architect, and the man who had just proposed to her, DONALD MANNING, leading man in the local stock company. Molly's swept off her feet by his wooing.
With a wrench of the will, Molly struggled for self-possession.
"Don, dear," she gasped huskily, drawing out of his embrace. "We must think this out—." She put her hand to her hot cheek, to her forehead, distractedly.
Don shook his head, smilingly with a tenderness it was pain to resist. "This isn't the time to think, dear. Don't you love me?"
Molly's hand wavered to her temple. "Oh, Don—you're very—very dear. But I simply must think. There's something I—"
"You might as well try to swim by thinking about it!" he protested, seizing her hands again. Come with me on the midnight express tonight. His tones were compelling. Molly felt her mind clouding as he went on: "You must think about love—about life—by living it."
At the words the glowing mist cleared in Molly's brain.
"No, Don," she said tenderly but with steady voice. "I have got to think—about you, about my work, about—me. The stronger our love is—if it is love—the better it will stand thinking out. Don't—"
She finished the sentence by bending over, picking up the oars and putting them into his hands. The Molly who was "sure as an adding machine" seemed so strongly in command that Donald obeyed, tho' sulkily, and turned the boat back toward the beachhouse.
"But you'll give me," he pleaded, "my answer before the dance is over. If we are to leave tonight—"
A skiff, powerfully propelled by Ben Wheeler, slid out of the dark to their side.
"You promised me the twelfth dance Molly," his tone was as cold and hard as the click of a machine, "and the thing is all over."
"I'm so sorry, Ben," said Molly, simply and sincerely, "but I really had something—important to talk over with Don."
Wheeler did not answer until they had entered the club. Then he resumed, his words like hammer strokes:
"The only thing that seems important to you just now, Molly, is Donald Manning. And the only important thing to Manning is Manning—and his harem. What have you got to do with that?"
Molly stopped dancing as the frozen suddenly to the floor.
"Ben Wheeler," she said, her voice vibrating with astonishment and anger. "Donald Manning has asked me—to marry him. And I think you've helped me Ben, to decide."
She moved off toward where Don was watching them under knit brows. Wheeler, stunned momentarily, overtook her.
"How nice!" He could not keep the irony from his tone. "And so you are thinking of marrying our matinee idol?" Then, some dynamo in Wheeler seemed to start into action.

"DONALD MANNING HAS ASKED ME TO MARRY HIM. AND I THINK YOU HAVE HELPED ME TO DECIDE."

Do you wear the same glasses for work, dress-up and play?

Glasses, you know, have a lot to do with a correct personal appearance. While rimmed glasses go well with your attire for work and play, they are entirely out of place when worn at evening or formal engagements. For such occasions, rimless glasses are the only thing.

We suggest that you consult us regarding the correct style of glasses for each occasion. We can quickly match your lenses and fit them into the proper and becoming styles of Shur-on frames and mountings. Shur-ons are noted for their superiority of construction and becoming designs.

SCARAMOUCHE

By RAFAEL SABATINI

Polichinelle and Rhodomon exchanged glances: the former winked, not without mirth.
But their attention was held by the voice of Scaramouche. He had stepped to the front of the stage.
"He doubts it," he was telling the audience. Shall I convince him?
Shall I tell him how a company of noblemen backed by their servants under arms—six hundred men in all —sought to dictate to the Third Estate of Rennes? Must I remind him of the martial front shown by the Third Estate, and how they swept the streets clean of that rabble of nobles—cette canaille noble...
Applause interrupted him. The phrase had struck home and caused him to smile. "But let me tell you of our leader, le plus noble de cette canaille, ou bien le plus canaille de ces nobles! You know him—that one.
He fears many things, but the voice of truth he fears most; does this proud leader, M. de La Tour d'Azyr, have heard of this valiant Marquis, this great lord of life and death?"

The pit was in an uproar a moment. It quieted again as Scara-mouche continued:

"Oh, it was a fine spectacle to see this mighty hunter scuttling to cover like a hare. Rennes has not seen him since. But if he is valiant, he is also discreet. And where do you think he has taken refuge, this great nobleman who wanted to see the streets of Rennes washed in the blood of its citizens, to silence the voice of reason and of liberty that presumes to ring through France today? Where do you think he hid—himself? Why, here in Nantes."

Again there was uproar.
"What do you say? Impossible?
Why, my friends, at this moment he is here in this theater—skulking up there in that box. He is too shy to show himself—oh, a very modest gentleman. But there he is behind the curtains. Will you not show yourself to your friends, M. de La Tour d'Azyr, Monsieur de Marquis who considers eloquence so very dangerous a gift?"

Challenged thus, and despite the ominous manner in which the bourgeois element in the audience had responded to Scaramouche's appeal to its passions, the Marquis swept aside the curtain at the side of the box, and suddenly showed himself.
He was shaken, at him, canes were brandished menacingly.

"Assassin! Scoundrel! Coward!
Traitor!"

But he braved the storm, smiling upon them his ineffable contempt.

In the pit pandemonium was already raging. Blows were being exchanged; there were scuffling groups, and here and there a sword was being drawn, but fortunately the press was too dense to permit of their being used effectively.

Men fell quickly into groups representative of one side or the other of this great quarrel or the other was beginning to agitate the whole of France. Their rallying cries were ringing through the theater.

"Down with the canaille!" from some.

"Down with the privileged!" from others.

And then above the general din one cry rang out sharply and insistently: "To the box! Death to the butcher of Rennes! Death to La Tour d'Azyr!"

There was a rush for one of the doors of the pit that opened upon the staircase leading to the boxes.
M. Binet succeeded in breaking past Polichinelle and Rhodomon.
Half a dozen gentlemen, habitués of the green-room, had come round to the stage to disambiguate the knave who had created this riot, and it was

"AWAY WITH YOU NOW, OR YOU'LL LEAVE YOUR SKIN HERE!"

they who had flung aside these two comedians who hung upon Binet.
After him they came now, their swords out, but after them again came Polichinelle, Rhodomon, Harlequin, Pierrot, Pasquariol, armed with such implements as they could hastily snatch up, and intent upon saving the man with whom they sym-pathized in spite of all.

Well ahead rolled Binet, swinging the long cane from which Pantalon is inseparable.

"Infamous scoundrel!" he roared.
"Name of a name, you shall pay!"

Andre-Louis turned to face him.
Binet's cane, viciously driven, descended and broke upon his shoulder. Had he not more—

as the blow fell it must have taken him across the head, and possibly stunned him. As he moved, he dropped his hand to his pocket, and swift upon the cracking of Binet's breaking cane came the crack of the pistol with which Andre-Louis replied.

"You had your warning, you filthy pander!" he cried. And on the word he shot him through the body.

Binet went down screaming, whilst the fierce Polichinelle, fiercer than ever in that moment of fierce reality, spoke quickly into Andre-Louis's ear:

"Fool! So much was not necessary! Away with you now, or you'll leave your skin here!"

Andre-Louis thought it good advice, and took it. He gained the wings, and here found himself faced by a couple of sergeants of the watch part of the police that was already invading the theater with a view to restoring order.

"Make way, or I'll burn your brains!" he threatened them, and intimidated, they fell back and let him pass. The street behind the theater was deserted. Down this he went on the run, intent on reaching the inn for clothes and money.

BOOK III: THE SWORD

CHAPTER I

"You may agree," wrote Andre-Louis from Nantes to Le Chapelier, in a letter which survives, "that it is to be regretted I should definitely have discarded the livery of Scaramouche, since clearly there could be no liv-erly fitter for my wear. It seems to be my part always to stir up strife and then to slip away before I am caught in the crash of the warring elements
I have aroused. It's a humiliating reflection. This time they may want to hang me for several things, including murder; for I do not know whether that scoundrel Binet be alive or dead from the dose of lead I pumped into his fat paunch."

There is also another letter of his written at about the same time to the Marquis de La Tour d'Azyr.

"The Paris newspapers," he writes in this, "inform me that you have escaped the fate I intended for you when I raised that storm of public indignation. I rejoice in it. Had from him that night, I should now recline in the thought of your un-troubled slumber, in torment of mind should the guilty atone."

"I am content that you should live to enrage and suffer in the shadow of your evil deed, knowing at last that the voice of Philippe de Villormin will follow you to denounce you ever more loudly, ever more insistently, until having lived in dread you shall go down in blood under the just rage which your victim's dangerous gift of eloquence is kind-ling against you."

Those two letters, both written in April of that year 1789, had for only immediate effect to increase the

Surprised to Find Herself Feeling So Well

Taunton, Mass.—"I used to have pains in my back and legs so badly, with other troubles that sometimes have, that my doctor ordered me to stay in bed a week in every month. It didn't do me much good, so one day after talking with a friend who took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for about the same troubles I had, I thought I would try it also.
Through the time and do my housework, too. Last month I was so surprised at myself to be up and around and feeling so good while before I used to feel completely lifeless. I have told some of the girls who work with me and have such troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I tell them how it has helped me. You can use my testimonial for the good of others."—Mrs.
BLANCH SILVER, 69 Grant St., Taunton, Mass.

It's the same story—one friend telling another of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ayers, 1136 W. High-st., announce the birth of a daughter.

Athletics For All Students

Ohio Wesleyan's aim to make the entire student body physically fit rather than to develop a few star athletes, has increased rather than decreased her prowess in all branches of athletics.

While many schools by special effort have been able to develop one or two branches of sports to a high standard, Ohio Wesleyan's policy has permitted her to put into the field, year after year, strong teams in all major and minor sports:—Football, Baseball, Basketball, and Track; Tennis, Gymnasium and Swimming Teams.

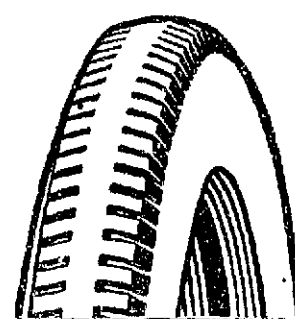

To further encourage mass rather than individual athletic training the University has many intramural contests in all branches of sports between its classes, fraternities and clubs.

At Ohio Wesleyan there is every opportunity for all students to become equipped physically for lives of strenuous work.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

A Remarkable New Cord Tire at a Popular Price

Here is a big, sturdy, long-wearing new tire built to satisfy the buyer on every point of mileage, quality and price.

It is designed especially for the man who wants the essential advantages of cord tire performance at the lowest possible price.

It is designed to offer the buyer a quality product at a price even lower than he has formerly paid for a "long discount" tire. It has a different tread from the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread Cord—a new tread with a deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern—and its selling price ranges from 20 to 25% less.

This new tire is the Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord.

Like the All-Weather Tread Cord it is liberally oversize in all straight-side sizes, the 4½-inch tire, for example, actually measuring nearly 5 inches.

Like the All-Weather Tread Cord, its foundation is genuine high-grade long-staple cotton.

Like the All-Weather Tread Cord, it embodies the efficient group-ply construction, a Goodyear patent.

Like the All-Weather Tread Cord, it is the product of an experienced company which has a world-wide reputation to safeguard.

Look at the prices of the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord, listed below.

Compare these prices with net prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires of unknown reputation and value.

Why take a chance on such tires?—you know it doesn't pay.

You can get the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord, as well as the famous All-Weather Tread Cord, from any of the Goodyear Service Station Dealers listed here.

SPECTACLES NO BAR TO GEORGE TOPORCER

BY BILLY EVANS.

A PHENOMENON in George Toporcer of the St. Louis Cardinals.

A baseball is nine inches in circumference. Scientists claim that to accurately follow the course of so small an object one must have perfect vision. No so with George Toporcer. He defies the laws of science. His vision is imperfect. When on the ball field he is forced to wear double barreled lenses in order to properly focus.

When Toporcer joined the Cardinals in the spring of 1931 he was hailed as a curiosity. The idea that a player could perform in the infield, handicapped by bad eyes and wearing glasses, was also ridiculed. True, Pitcher Meadows, who made his start with St. Louis, had been successful, but pitching was different from playing the infield.

While Toporcer will never be a Rogers Hornsby yet he has proved a most valuable player for the St. Louis club.

In the spring of last year, when Milton Stock was late in reporting, Hornsby moved over to third in place of Stock, and Toporcer filled in most acceptably at second.

PINCH ROLE

Illness on the spring training trip put Johnny Lavan, the Cardinals' shortstop, out of the running. Rickey must have a shortstop at once. Once again the pinch role was handed to Toporcer.

How Toporcer performed while Lavan was ill is now a matter of history. His batting was the sensation of the first two months of play. In the first 36 games he hit better than .400.

On May 15 and 16 of this year he achieved the unique distinction of having rapped out two triples and two home runs in four successive trips to the plate.

That is some feat for a leather-necked veteran, to say nothing of a pluck-checked, "four-eyed" rookie. Toporcer is a left-handed hitter, and has been unusually successful against southpaw pitching.

Twin Bills Slated

IMPORTANT games are looming on the Lima Independent schedule for late summer and early fall. To get in the number of contests that are available, but which would otherwise be impossible, the management has doubled up somewhat.

On July 30 St. Marys and Ft. Loraine will play the Independents here and August 13 the Chicago Friars and Celina will be the twin attraction. All four games should be first class.

St. Marys probably is the weak sister among the four. The Athletics have had tough sledding this season. They are not playing the ball of former seasons and little Minister gave them a facing Sunday. It is rumored, however, additions are being made to the club.

LOREANIE STRONG

In Ft. Loraine the Independents will catch a Tartar. The team is made up of Norb Sacksteder and noted athletes from Dayton and other nearby cities. It defeated Wapakoneta, St. Marys and other clubs in this belt.

In meeting Celina the Limaites will bump against the pitching of Dave Westbay, local hurler, who has been going great guns for the Mercer-co outfit. His most noteworthy achievement was a 2-1 game in 12 innings at Springfield. No lost, however.

The Friar club is one that cannot be booked easily. It is a high class aggregation of players, most of them ex-big leaguers.

STILL AFTER TWIRLER

The Independent management is still seeking a pitcher. Bernie Halloran is literally tearing out his hair in an effort to obtain a first rate slapper. Russell Main is alright, he says, but the strong clubs the team will play necessitate an addition to the mound staff.

George Pohlabie, shortstop, injured June 25 by a foul tip, may be in the game against Sidney here Sunday. "Nig" McMullen, Mansfield first sacker, out for more than a month with a broken leg, may soon re-appear in the lineup.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH CLEVELAND

Baseball fans all over the country are losing sleep over Cleveland.

And when they do sleep ask, "What's the matter?"

For the first time, since Tris Speaker became manager of the Indians they are dangling around the second division.

In the 13 years that Speaker has been associated with major league baseball he has never finished with a game percentage as low as .500.

The big criticism is pitchers. More than half the defeats up to June 1 were credited to recruits.

INDIANS LOSE IN 11 FRAMES

DETROIT — When Stephenson booted the ball and Blue tripled in the 11th inning, the Tigers were able to pull a torrid contest from the flames here yesterday afternoon, beating the Cleveland Indians 6 to 5 in the final game of the series. The outbats, the Tigers were able to make their blows count. Tris Speaker clouted a homer in the first.

Smith May Promote

EARL SMITH, the most successful pugilistic manager in local ring history, is contemplating becoming a promoter.

According to information that reached Frank Callahan, secretary of the Lima Boxing commission, Smith was to file his application for permit on Wednesday, but it did not show up. Callahan expects it to arrive most any time.

It has been known for some time that an application by Smith would be made. The Moose backed his efforts in striving for the July 4 card, but it went to the Lima Gym club because it had its application filed first.

The commission has only one application to pass on. It is one filed by the Lima Gym club asking for the Labor Day date here. The application was tabled temporarily pending disposition of the July 4 card.

With Smith looming on the boxing horizon, there should be no end of good fight programs in Lima the remainder of the summer, in fall and winter.

REDS EASY FOR CARDINALS

ST. LOUIS — Cincinnati Reds are soft for the Cardinals yesterday. They polished them in a freetung game 11 to 4. The lopsided victory was due to a great deal to Cliff Clark, Red pitcher, who allowed no earned runs in the second inning and six more in the third on ten hits, a walk and a double error by Babe Pinelli. Clyde Barfoot, slated for Ricker, and the Reds collected seven singles off him as he was in danger. Rogers Hornsby, who hit his 20th homerun of the season, scored.

Credit for Victory Belongs to Woman

CLEVELAND—Credit for the victory Tuesday of Charley Sweet in the Edwards sweepstakes, one of North Randall's oldest Grand Circuit fixtures, belongs to Mrs. L. T. Cooper, wife of Dr. L. T. Cooper, Dayton millionaire, in whose name the horse was entered, it was revealed today.

Last winter Dr. Cooper decided that the gelding had outlived his usefulness as a Grand Circuit pacer and arranged to sell him at a Chicago sale. Being her favorite, Mrs. Cooper objected whereupon her husband made her a present of the horse.

She provided for his training and upkeep and was rewarded when O. H. Erskine drove the pacer to victory in straight heats.

6 BEST TROTTERS IN SWEEPSTAKES

CLEVELAND—Six of the best trotters in training were scheduled to start in the trotting sweepstakes at North Randall today. This event divided attention in Grand Circuit harness horse racing circles with the Fasig, the first sweepstakes of the season for three year old trotter.

The trotting sweepstakes is the fastest trot of the meeting and is open to the 2:05 class.

Ten were named to go in the Fasig, which carries a purse of $2,000.

Other events on the card were the second division of the 2:21 trot, with eight probable starters and the 2:12 pace in which twelve were named. The first division of the 2:21 trot will be raced tomorrow.

NO DECISIONS

Decision boxing bouts in Toledo will be banned, at least for the present, it was decided at a meeting by the boxing commission there yesterday.

BOY SURMOUNTS PHYSICAL HANDICAP; BECOMES GREAT ATHLETE

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Altho physically handicapped in boyhood, doctors saying he would not be able to walk again, Brutus Kerr Hamilton, has finished one of the greatest college athletic careers by graduating from the University of Missouri. Hamilton, who holds the American decathlon and pentathlon championships, suffered from a disease of the hip when he was ten years old, it was learned today, and a physician told his parents there was no hope for the boy's physical recovery. The youth's left leg was said to be more than an inch shorter than the right leg.

But the seemingly hopeless event took place—young Brutus was cured of his physical handicap. He entered high school by sheer perseverance and will power attained many honors on track and field. Matriculating into the University of Missouri, the star high school athlete came under the eye of Coach Bob Simpson, the world's greatest hurdler, in his college days.

Coach Simpson continued the development of Hamilton as an all-around athlete. Hamilton carried away many victories for the University of Missouri in track meets. He also participated in the Olympic games at Antwerp in 1920.

HORNSBY MAY CRACK SEASON HOMER RECORD IN NATIONAL

NEW YORK — Rogers Hornsby, slugging second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, promises to excel this year the National league's season homerun record that has weathered the test of time and hefty cloutings for 38 years. Ed Williamson of the old Chicago Nationals set the record at 27 in 1884, a mark that such sluggers as Anson, Brubachers, Deleahanty, Schulte and Cravath have sought in vain to better.

Hornsby clouted out his twentieth homer while the Cardinals were trimming Cincinnati 11 to 4 and with the season only half gone his chance not only to exceed but to establish a figure to hit at for years to come, is especially bright. Incidentally, he tied his American League rival, Williams of the Browns, for leadership in both leagues.

Cravath set a modern National League mark with 24 homers in 1915. George Kelly of the Giants led the league last year with 25 and Hornsby was second with 21.

Athletics For All Students

Ohio Wesleyan's aim to make the entire student body physically fit rather than to develop a few star athletes, has increased rather than decreased her progress in all branches of athletics.

While many schools by special effort have been able to develop one or two branches of sports to a high standard, Ohio Wesleyan's policy has permitted her to put into the field, year after year, strong teams in all major and minor sports:—Football, Baseball, Basketball, and Track; Tennis, Gymnasium and Swimming Teams.

To further encourage mass rather than individual athletic training the University has many intramural contests in all branches of sports between its classes, fraternities and clubs.

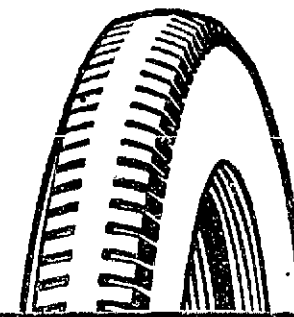

At Ohio Wesleyan there is every opportunity for all students to become equipped physically for lives of strenuous work.

SPECTACLES NO BAR TO GEORGE TOPORCER

BY BILLY EVANS.

A PHENOMENON is George Toporcer of the St. Louis Cardinals.

A baseball is nine inches in circumference. Scientists claim that to accurately follow the course of so small an object one must have perfect vision. No so with George Toporcer. He defies the laws of science. His vision is imperfect. When on the ball field he is forced to wear double barreled lenses in order to properly focus.

When Toporcer joined the Cardinals in the spring of 1931 he was hailed as a curiosity.

The idea that a player could perform in the infield, handicapped by bad eyes and wearing glasses, was also ridiculed. True, Pitcher Meadows, who made his start with St. Louis, had been successful, but pitching was different from playing the infield.

While Toporcer will never be a Rogers Hornsby yet he has proved a most valuable player for the St. Louis club.

In the spring of last year, when Milton Stock was late in reporting, Hornsby moved over to third in place of Stock, and Toporcer filled in most acceptably at second.

PINCH ROLE

Illness on the spring training trip put Johnny Lavan, the Cardinals' shortstop, out of the running. Riskey must have a shortstop at once. Once again the pinch role was handed to Toporcer.

How Toporcer performed while Lavan was ill is now a matter of history. His batting was the sensation of the first two months of play. In the first 36 games he hit better than .400.

On May 15 and 16 of this year he achieved the unique distinction of having rapped out two triples and two home runs in four successive trips to the plate.

That is some feat for a leather-necked veteran, to say nothing of a pink-cheeked, "four-eyed" rookie.

Toporcer is a left-handed hitter, and has been unusually successful against southpaw pitching.

Twin Bills Slated

I MPORTANT games are looming on the Lima Independent schedule for late summer and early fall. To get in the number of contests that are available, but which would otherwise be impossible, the management has doubled up somewhat.

On July 30 St. Marys and Ft. Loram will play the Independents here and August 13 the Chicago Friars and Celina will be the twin attraction. All four games should be first class.

St. Marys probably is the weak sister among the four. The Athletics have had tough sledding this season. They are not playing the ball of former seasons and Little Minister gave them a lacing Sunday. It is rumored, however, additions are being made to the club.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH CLEVELAND

Baseball fans all over the country are losing sleep over Cleveland.

And when they do sleep ask, "What's the matter?"

For the first time, since Tris Speaker became manager of the Indians they are dangling around the second division.

In the 13 years that Speaker has been associated with major league baseball he has never finished with a game percentage as low as .300.

The big criticism is pitchers. Another cause is rookie pitchers. More than half the defeats up to June 1 were credited to recruits.

6 BEST TROTTERS IN SWEEPSTAKES

CLEVELAND—Six of the best trotters in training were scheduled to start in the trotting sweepstakes at North Randall today. This event divided attention in Grand Circuit harness racing circles with the Fasig, the first sweepstakes of the season for three year old trotter.

The trotting sweepstakes is the fastest trot of the meeting and is open to the 2:05 class.

Ten were named to go in the Fasig, which carries a purse of $2,000.

Other events on the card were the second division of the 2:21 trot, with eight probable starters and the 2:12 pace in which twelve were named. The first division of the 2:21 trot will be raced tomorrow.

NO DECISIONS

Decision boxing bouts in Toledo will be banned, at least for the present, it was decided at a meeting by the boxing commission there yesterday.

BOY SURMOUNTS PHYSICAL HANDICAP; BECOMES GREAT ATHLETE

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Altho physically handicapped in boyhood, doctors saying he would not be able to walk again, Brutus Kerr Hamilton, has finished one of the greatest college athletic careers by graduating from the University of Missouri. Hamilton, who holds the American decathlon and pentathlon championships, suffered from a disease of the hip when he was ten years old, it was learned today, and a physician told his parents there was no hope for the boy's physical recovery.

The youth's left leg was said to be more than an inch shorter than the right leg.

But the seemingly hopeless event took place—young Brutus was cured of his physical handicap. He entered high school by sheer perseverance and will power attained many honors on track and field. Matriculating into the University of Missouri, the star high school athlete came under the eye of Coach Bob Simpson, the world's greatest hurdler, in his college days.

Coach Simpson continued the development of Hamilton as an all-around athlete. Hamilton carried away many victories for the University of Missouri in track meets. He also participated in the Olympic games at Antwerp in 1920.

HORNSBY MAY CRACK SEASON HOMER RECORD IN NATIONAL

NEW YORK — Rogers Hornsby, slugging second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, promises to excel this year the National league's season homerun record that has weathered the test of time and hotly clouting for 38 years. Ed Williamson of the old Chicago Nationals set the record at 27 in 1884, a mark that such sluggers as Anson, Brubaker, Delehanty, Schulte and Cravath have sought in vain to better.

Hornsby clouted out his twentieth homer while the Cardinals were trimming Cincinnati 11 to 4 and with the season only half gone his chance not only to exceed but to establish a figure to hit at for years to come, is especially bright. Incidentally, he tied his American League rival, Williams of the Browns, for leadership in both leagues.

BOXER MARRIED

Sailor Grant, Lima middleweight, was married Wednesday to Miss Florence Price, 17, of 1058 S. Central-av. Grant is 19 years old and had to have his father's permission.

Browns' Hope Rests on Rookie Pruett

HERB "SHUCKS" PRUETT
Critics thought him too weak to stand the ruff but Young Fournet has turned out the Brown mainstay. He was a collegian.

INDIANS LOSE IN 11 FRAMES

DETROIT — When Stephenson booted the ball and Blue tripled in the 11th inning, the Tigers were able to pull a torrid contest from the flames here yesterday afternoon, beating the Cleveland Indians 6 to 5 in the final game of the series.

The outfit, the Tigers were able to make their blows count. Tris Speaker clouted a homer in the first.

Smith May Promote

E ARL SMITH, the most successful pugilistic manager in local ring history, is contemplating becoming a promoter.

According to information that reached Frank Callahan, secretary of the Lima Boxing commission, Smith was to file his application for permit on Wednesday, but it did not show up. Callahan expects it to arrive most any time.

It has been known for some time that an application by Smith would be made. The Moose backed his efforts in striving for the July 4 card, but it went to the Lima Gym club because it had its application filed first.

The commission has only one application to pass on. It is one filed by the Lima Gym club asking for the Labor Day date here. The application was tabled temporarily pending disposition of the July 4 card.

With Smith looming on the boxing horizon, there should be no end of good fight programs in Lima the remainder of the summer, in fall and winter.

MAJORS SHIFTED

Teams in both major leagues shifted battleground today, western contenders of the American invading the east, while the eastern clubs in the older circuit took up the struggle in the west. The Giants started their tip against the slidding Pittsburgh Pirates while the St. Louis Browns opened against Boston. Cleveland was scheduled to play a double header with the New York Yankees.

PLAY PRELIMINARY

Preceding the Sidney-Independent game at Murphy-st, park Sunday, John Guinan's Knights of Columbus team will take on the East Buckland nine. Guinan's club has lost its last three games.

SHORT SHAVINGS

James Shockey of Wapakoneta, went fishing with two friends. When they reached the river they were thirsty. They knelt down to drink. One fell in. The two others laughed. A second fell in. Shockey laughed. "I guess I wouldn't have laughed so hard," he says, "if I had known I was going to lose my balance and fall in next."

Captain O. A. Dupes of Company G, Ohio National Guard, resolved to follow a carefully prescribed diet. "All went well," he says, "until a friend told me a nearby restaurant was serving a delicacy I never have been able to resist. That is pig knuckles and sauer kraut."

Frank Grothouse, fire chief at Delphos, hired a man to slope his back lawn. The man went at the job with great care to see that the lawn sloped uniformly at all points, and at exactly the right angle. His only error was in making it slope toward the house. "Before I got it changed," reports Grothouse, "I had the wildest cellar in town, except of course a few which had been stocked against prohibition."

Police Sergeant C. H. McCoy had great difficulty in locating a squeak in his automobile, even after he applied the methods of Einstein and A. Conan Doyle. But he didn't give up. He opened the car up and looked in at front. Then he walked around and looked in back. He got down on his knees and looked under it. He lifted up the seats and looked under each. He tried every fixed and movable part in the entire car, but still he couldn't locate the squeak. Then he walked up and down to think it over calmly, and found the squeak was not in the car at all. "It was my suspender buckle," McCoy said.

PROSPECTOR KEEPS AHEAD OF GOLD RUSHERS

THE PAS, Man — (Special) — Radio is giving the rush to the gold rush.

Jack Anderson, prospector, explorer, roamer of the Canadian wilds, has started it. He has just arrived with a radio receiving set which, he says, will keep him many bounds ahead of all the old-time gold rushers.

The way Anderson works it is this:

Anderson's partner has a sending set at The Pas. Anderson takes his receiving set and goes into the wilderness.

Other prospectors are in the wilderness looking for gold on copper. When one makes a strike he stakes his claim and returns to the city.

Then, with news of the new find, the gold rush begins.

Anderson's partner has a sending set at The Pas. Anderson takes his receiving set and goes into the wilderness and nearer the location of the strike than those in the city. He gets news of the find by radio. His partner sends it in the day it is announced.

So Anderson gets there first and has his choice of location for staking his claim.

What will be the result?

More radio sets, says Anderson, and then—the end of the gold rushing days. Instead of staking in the city, waiting for announcement of a find, the prospectors will be close to the valuable spots ready to hear the news by radio.

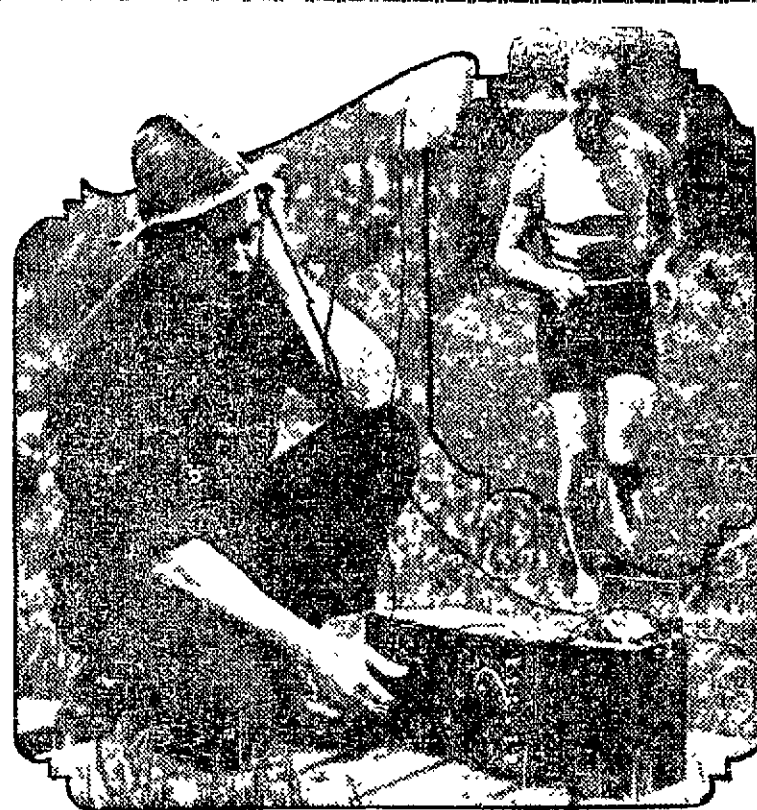

IN TRAINING

Still, Anderson doesn't fear this new competition. He's prepared for it physically. Like a pugilist, he trains for his work during the winter months.

A steady half hour of rope skipping, another of punching the bag every day, boxing, road work, and virtually every conditioning stunt used by fighters, make up his training schedule.

"My work requires strength, besides complete co-ordination of nerve and muscle," says Anderson.

"Because of my training I am able to outdo the prospector who works in the woods all winter at lumbering, trapping and dog driving, when I go out in the spring."

The Social Side

LIFE at the Hollenden is not all business. Its registers carry the names of men and women of national and international fame in science, art, politics, industry and social life. Its facilities are ample for any requirement. It has the largest banquet hall in Ohio, and many private dining rooms. Its parlors are not in the main line of traffic through the office, but secluded, quiet, luxurious, comfortable and inviting, and its restaurants have established the highest standard for the excellence of their food and service.
